They have done studies for the Fire Station & Dorms and have moved them up on the priority list. In the FY 18 CPIP they will be replacing all of the training hydrants on site and adding storz connections. They are also looking at the 5-story tower, it has some water damage and rust, they are currently looking at the best option to fix it with possibly formed concrete. Some new things they would like to look at adding to the academy are a command training center and inspections lab. The OSFM has offered the position of Finance Liaison and the candidate has verbally accepted the position and soon will be announcing that name. They have been working hard on Senate Bill 709 which deals with annual inspections of all schools. OSFM has provided three options for bill compliance and SFM Jones will be meeting with Senator Hembry this week to discuss further the bill's impact. SC will also be hosting the National Association of State Fire Marshals in Charleston at the end of the month. SFM Jones mentioned the great relationship with LLR, and stated that without LLR help and support we could not do what we have been able to do with many things to include the CPIP. On Thursday, the Academy will be hosting the Lt. Governor and on July 20th, will be hosting Governor McMaster along with some folks from Bogota, Columbia.

Ken Kerber shared that with the new partnership with State Guard they are up to 98 deployable active members. Coming soon in August or September, USAR looks forward to working with the Lakota Helicopters, which are smaller than the Black Hawks and are able to get into smaller spaces in the mountains. As of today there have been 66 Fire Fatalities in our state. USAR and the ERT will participate in the Solar Eclipse Conference Call being held tomorrow.

Old Business

2017 Fire –Rescue AAR

This year was a great success but everyone wanted to talk about 2018 Conference. Opening Ceremonies had between 700 -750 people in attendance, the business meeting was not well attended. Many persons had returned to their hotels and was videoed by Association staff at hotel pools. We had 4,700 people go through the exhibit hall and we brought in $168,403 in revenue from the Exhibit Hall this year. Class totals were 1,816 total folks which attended classes.

Comments & Concerns from the group:

John Bowers – Expressed the need for a two point lanyards or names printed on both sides of the cards. ID's are important and so many were turned around where you couldn't see their names. Chief expressed the need for longer classroom time blocks. Instructors weren't as prepared as they could have been. How do we convey to them that they need to make their presentation appropriate for the time slot?

Sammie Castles – Preregistration needs to be in front of you when you walk in the door so you automatically see it not off to the side.

Lee Levesque – How do we capture what folks are most interested in? Some classes were overflowing and not enough space. Do we preregister for everything?

Tres Atkinson – How do we advertise for the dinner better? We had a lot of folks want to attend the dinner but we had quit selling tickets in order to give the hotel a count. Is it an option when you pre register? With 2018, we have more signage opportunities.
